Unto Us
a Child is Born

December has finally arrived and we know that December is all about Christmas. As soon as the Thanksgiving leftovers are put in the frig, we begin to plan and prepare for Christmas.

No matter how early we begin planning for Christmas, God had His plans from the very beginning. In His word, the first mention of the Messiah to come was in Genesis 3:15, and there are scriptures throughout the Old Testament that allude to His coming.

Over 700 years before the birth of Christ, the prophet Isaiah wrote, “Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call His name Immanuel”.

Isaiah 7:14 (NKJV)

It is a season like no other, and it brings joy and hope like no other time of the year. But for some, Christmas and other special days are times of sadness and melancholy because there is an empty chair at their table. Some feel more alone than at any other time of the year.

God gave instructions that His Son, the coming Messiah, would be called “Immanuel”, which means “God with us”.

God is always with us; we are never alone, but He sent His Son to be with us “in the flesh”. He came to take our sin and our sorrow, and to replace it with the joy and hope that only He can give.

My prayer is that each of us may feel the peace, the joy, and the grace that God sent when He sent Jesus to redeem us. I also pray that we may have a feeling of joyful anticipation, knowing that He will return again to bring eternal peace to each of us who put our faith in Him.

Please continue to pray for those in our church family and community that need “the peace that passes all understanding”.

Merry Christmas and God bless you,

David L. Atwood
