EASTER OFFERING®
anniearmstrong.com

WHY IS THE EASTER OFFERING NAMED FOR ANNIE?

In 1895, an offering was first collected for the work of the Home Missions Board. In 1934, this offering was renamed the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for Home Missions to honor the work of Annie Armstrong as a tireless advocate for giving, praying and going to share the gospel of Jesus Christ with those who did not know him.

From the Pastor's Desk

March heralds the beginning of spring, and with spring comes beautiful color after the dull gray of winter. New leaves on the trees, plants in the garden, and green grass and clover in our pastures and yards are the evidence of spring.

And speaking of clover, St. Patrick's Day is March 17th. He lived from the late 2nd century to the mid-3rd century, and is credited with spreading Christianity in Ireland which was mostly a pagan country in the time of St. Patrick.

There are many legends associated with St. Patrick; one being that he used a 3-leaf shamrock (clover) to explain the Holy Trinity; one God in 3 parts.

We can explain the Trinity all we want, but we'll never comprehend it; all we are required to do is believe it. Two scriptures that mention all 3 parts of the Trinity are:

"Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit". Matt. 28:19 (NASB)

"The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all". II Corinthians 13:14 (NASB)

Many people would rather gamble on being lucky in life than on the assurance of being saved. The odds of finding a 4-leaf clover are 1 in 10,000. What do you think the odds are that the creator of heaven and earth would pick you out of all the people in the world to be His child? If you believe, the odds are 1 in 1.

"For whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved". Romans 10:13 (NASB)

And that's no legend; that's the gospel truth. Put your faith in God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit.

Please remember to keep our needy brothers and sisters in your prayers.

God bless you all,

David L. Atwood
