SUNDAY MORNING WORSHIP:

If you are over 65 or have an auto immune deficiency, or just don't feel comfortable following the guidelines set out in David's May 21st letter, you are encouraged to continue worshipping with us remotely in the comfort of your home. There have been some changes recently. The 11:00 a.m. Sunday Morning Worship service is currently being live-streamed on Facebook. As I understand it, video of the current live streamed services will no longer be available on YouTube, only on Facebook. If attending in person, please wear a mask when entering or leaving sanctuary. Masks may be removed once seated. Every other pew is blocked off. You may sit with family members (or whoever you travelled to church with), otherwise please keep social distancing guidelines. Temperature will be taken when arriving & we will leave one row at a time when dismissed. Hugging, shaking hands, etc. is discouraged at this time, but smiling & waving is encouraged (with proper social distancing), of course.

Nov.26 THANKSGIVING-PRAISE GOD

SORRY

NO HARVEST STEW THIS YEAR

When November rolls around, we all think of Thanksgiving. This year, I'm sure many people are thinking, "With coronavirus, political and civil unrest, and so many other things happening in our lives, this year has been the worst year of my life. What is there to be thankful for?" I have a good idea; turn off the television, put down your phone, throw the newspaper in the trash, and read the words of a song by Jeff and Sherri Easter called, "Praise His Name".

When you're up against a wall and your mountain seems so tall,
And you realize life's not always fair
You can run away and hide, the let old man decide,
or you can change your circumstances with a prayer.

When everything falls apart, praise His name,
When you have a broken heart raise your hands and say
Lord, You're all I need, You're everything to me,
And He'll take the pain away.

When it seems you're all alone, praise His name,
When you feel you can't go on, just raise your hands and say
Greater is He that is within me,
And you can praise the hurt away, if you'll just praise His name.

While the rest of the world is heading farther and farther away from the Father on the ungodly path they have chosen, we can draw closer and closer to Him and realize that, no matter our circumstances, we are SO blessed. We have our families, our church family, and most of all, we have the love of God that covers us like the soft, warm security blanket of a child. We are His children, you know.

"I will praise you, O Lord, with all my heart; I will tell of all Your wonders. I will be glad and rejoice in You; I will sing praises to Your name, O Most High. Psalm 9:1-2"

My study bible lists over 60 verses in the Psalms alone that refer to our praise for Him. Oh yes, at this time of year or any other time of year, we have MUCH to be thankful for.

Please continue to pray for our church family and community. Pray for our country and all who have suffered loss from the coronavirus. Pray for our brothers and sisters around the world who suffer persecution daily for their faith. And pray for the untold millions who so desperately need that soft, warm security blanket that we have in Christ.

God bless you all,

David L. Atwood
