A Note From the Pastor

School is back in swing and now football is beginning. It seems like only yesterday that football season was over, and I can't even remember who won the National Championship or the Super Bowl. Apparently it's not that important....at least, not to me.

September begins with Labor Day; a day set aside to honor working men and women. The Bible has a lot to say to us about our labor, or lack of it. Labor is honorable and bears fruit. Laziness is the hallmark of a lack of labor. Everyone has to labor to provide for themselves and their family. Labor for the Lord will be rewarded by God Himself. Make sure that your labor honors God and not self.

My favorite Bible verse about labor is 1 Corinthians 15:58: "Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourself fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain".

I hope each of you have decided where you will labor for the Lord in His church. September begins a new church year, and everyone's labor is appreciated and needed.

Please continue to be in prayer for those in our church family and community who are having personal, medical and spiritual needs.

I hope you will be an active participant at all of our services. There are so many in our family, our community, and in our world that need our prayers.

Thanks and God Bless each of you,

David L. Atwood
