Do you remember where you were on September 12, 1962? On that day, President John F. Kennedy was in Houston to make a speech about choices.

He was there to make a speech justifying a $5.4 billion dollar space program. He had called on Congress the previous year to fund a massive project to put a man on the moon and bring him home safely before the end of the decade.

Kennedy challenged the listeners that day to think big. He said, “But why, some would say, the moon? Why choose this as our goal? And they may well ask, why climb the highest mountain? Why, 35 years ago (1927), fly the Atlantic?”.

The space program did happen, and a man walked on the moon in that same decade, but John Kennedy didn’t live to see it.

Sometimes, the goals we set and the choices we make seem just as impossible as those that he spoke of.

Around 1400 B.C., a man, not a president, but a godly man, said this: “If it is disagreeable in your sight to serve the Lord, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve.....but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord”. Joshua 24:14-15 NASB.

Choosing to serve the Lord seems to be an almost impossible goal in the ungodly world we live in, “But with God, all things are possible”. It’s an eternal choice. With faith in God, you will fly much higher than the moon.

What is your goal, and what choices will you make to attain that goal?

Keep your prayers coming; there are so many who need them.

God bless you all,

David L. Atwood
